

Cairde agus Pátrúin Chill Dreasa 'Ag Seasamh Gualainn ar Ghualainn... Standing Shoulder to Shoulder'

What Cairde and Pátrúin Chill Dreasa are about

The GAA is based on a simple but very powerful principle: you put in...but you don't take out. And you put in because you believe in contributing to your culture, your games, your place, your people and your community. Nowhere else on the planet has anything like the GAA. And those who don't have it look enviously at it.

Our Wolfe Tones GAA Club continues to be a central and very positive part of life in Kildress.

Cairde and Pátrúin Chill Dreasa are about Kildress people coming together to support our Club's development agenda. Cairde members typically contribute £20 a month whilst Pátrúin gift us £5,000. They all do so on that wonderful basis of asking nothing in return other than being proud and content about investing in something positive and special.

All Cairde and Pátrúin money is ring-fenced to fund our new Ionad Pobail Chill Dreasa/Kildress Community Hub at Gortacladdy. It won't be used for routine Club running costs.

Why We Need You

As a Club we're now well-advanced with our most ambitious plans ever, our new building at Gortacladdy.

That multi-use two-storey Hub building will help revolutionise community life here and will contain changing and personal care facilities, a multi-use community hall, gym/physical fitness/multi-activity area, boxing facilities, culture and meeting/community interaction space, reception area and basic catering/café provision. It will totally replace our existing Clubrooms which have served us well but were no longer fit-for-purpose.

It is costing the best part of £1.2m to do that. It's a huge challenge but one we must and can rise to. And it's one we are rising to, brilliantly well. Crucially, it's one that you can help with by joining Cairde Chill Dreasa or becoming a Pátrúin.'

'Bi linn is cuidigh linn...come and join us, do your bit!'
